Dear George:

It was nice to receive your letter and good to hear from you. I envy you your time at Amherst. Just last week, I attended a local alumni function where we had the pleasure of hearing Chuck Eldridge give a walking tour of modern traditional Indian art at Renwick Gallery. It was very enjoyable and very meaningful to me as I have a small but discreet Great Plains collection.

I am glad to know of Scott Williams and of his interest in becoming a law enforcement officer after graduation. While I was at the Bureau, we had an honors program for a number of undergraduate interns during the summer months. I am going to pass your letter along to Bill Baker, now my Director of Public Affairs at the Agency, who was active in setting up the program at the FBI. I will ask that he pass along your letter about Scott and that the Bureau official in charge of the program send along whatever application forms are currently in effect. If the program is for any reason no longer available, I will pass that back to you. I am confident that it is still going well, however. I used to meet with the interns and found them to be an especially challenging group. Scott Williams as you describe him would definitely be of interest to the selection committee.

With warm regards always,

Sincerely,

William H. Webster

Dear Bill -

My friend, Scott Williams, an Amherst sophomore, intends to be a law enforcement officer when he graduates in 1990. He would like to gain some experience there next two summers. He is a good scholar and a great football player. He is black, weighs 235 lbs and is 6 ft. tall.

He is a graduate of Wilburton Academy. His Dad was coach of track until last year when he was appointed Chairperson of Phys Ed. at Amherst College.

Scott is a splendid man.

Do you know of any jobs or training that would be available?
He would be free 1 June - 1 Sept.

Sorry about my penmanship. A secretary and a discretionary fund are the things I miss in retirement.

I hope to live long enough to see you a member of the Supreme Court and Jack Danforth the president of this country. If that should happen he promised that I would give the prayer at his inauguration!

God keep you

I am your friend.

Best.

8 February 1988.
